

The Foreign Media in Japan:

Past, Present, and Future and how it sees Kansai

A Zoom Conference Event

Wednesday, April 21st 18:30- 20:00

SPEAKERS

Isabel Reynolds, President, Foreign Correspondents' Club of Japan/Correspondent, Bloomberg News

Walter Sim, 2nd Vice-President, Foreign Correspondents' Club of Japan/Japan Correspondent, The Singapore Straits Times

Ilgin Yorulmaz, Secretary, Foreign Correspondents' Club of Japan/BBC World Turkish, Adjunct Professor Temple University Japan Campus

Moderated by: Eric Johnston, Senior National Correspondent, The Japan Times

Though Tokyo based, some 35 FCCJ members reside in Kansai. With Osaka preparing to host the 2025 World Expo and the Cultural Affairs Agency relocating to Kyoto, international media interest in the region is expected to grow in the coming years. On April 21st, FCCJ will conduct a Zoom conference with interested residents of the Kansai region about FCCJ and the state of the foreign media in Japan. Panelists will take questions from attendees, including Kansai-based journalists, business leaders, diplomats, academics, artists, activists, and students. Please join us for what promises to be a lively discussion.

ENGLISH ONLY. FREE OF CHARGE

To register, please contact Eric Johnston at eric.johnston@japantimes.co.jp by no later than TUESDAY, APRIL 20th