

LAW COM REPORT

Security for the Wi-Fi in the library

The internet access on the 6th floor will be password protected. This has become necessary because of several incidents in which non-members have been using the facilities.

Starting 2022/6/15 (Wed), a password is necessary to access the SSIDs “fccj-library” (for the library and the workroom) and “fccj-studio” (for the studio).

Members using the library are requested to obtain the password from the library office. The password may change from time to time for security reasons. The library users will be notified in advance.
